

Save the Dates, Tell a Friend

WRITING BASEBALL

“Writing Baseball,” a multi-media exhibit based on the writings and collections of MALS professor Harvey Frommer, will run from June 17-July 31 at Dartmouth’s Baker Berry Library. The exhibit will center on three themes: “Old Time Baseball,” “Red Sox vs Yankees” and “Breaking Baseball’s Color Line” all of which will be evoked through Professor Frommer’s writings, photographs and display of memorabilia.

A widely published and well-known sports author and oral historian, Frommer is the author of 41 baseball books include Remembering Yankee Stadium and Remembering Fenway Park. He plans to recount some of his experiences as a chronicler of the National Pastime in a presentation on June 24.

Dr. Frommer’s talk is scheduled for 4pm at the back of Baker. All are welcome. Ballpark-style refreshments will be served.

For further info, contact Dr. Frommer at Harvey.Frommer@dartmouth.edu.